PROJECT

Kelajak

I'm the founder of a weekly debate tournament, which now has over 30 participants and 50 active viewers. After securing a 1 million sum prize fund, we're expanding it with the director's help to include all schools in our region soon. My team, 'ArguMinds,' competes in the tournament as well, and last season (W-S) ended successfully. Our work is being reviewed by officials, and once approved, we will make this project :regional school competition
